RETIRING COLLECTIONS

To mark the 40th anniversary of St Mary's Hospice, the PCC is inviting us to contribute to a retiring collection for the hospice for the Sundays in July. Please give generously to this excellent local charity.

TRINITY PRAYER

The informal evening service using Common Worship is held on Wednesdays, 6pm in the Lady Chapel. It lasts not more than half an hour. Do come if you can. The main church door will be open.

PRAYER IN JULY

The website that was used as background to the well-regarded Lent prayer sessions has a pattern of prayer through July which can be found on the website itself, or you can subscribe (no charge) to have daily portions sent to a smart phone. This might serve as a continuation of the Lent practices, while we think how we could continue the experience of the groups in some shared way. Suggestions for such continuation to Jenny Uff are most welcome. www.pathwaystogod/31-days-st-ignatius-2019

LUNCHTIME CONCERT

The next concert will be on 7th August.

THE FRIENDSHIP PLACE

This is the new, and more welcoming, name for our dementia cafe (demcaf). Please continue to encourage friends or neighbours living with memory loss to come—next session

LET THE STONES LIVE - MASONRY REPAIRS

The very good news is that all the replacement stone has been cut and is now ready for repair work to begin on the weather ravaged East Vestry wall and window. Unfortunately, in order to avoid a month delay, erecting scaffolding had to be scheduled for this very morning! We trust that the work will not intrude on worship services today. Thank you for your patience and understanding. Carol Couse
