We have an induction loop

Prayer for August

Lord of heaven and earth, as Jesus taught his disciples to be persistent in prayer, give us patience and courage never to lose hope, but always to bring our prayers before you; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

JULIAN GOES TO WALSALL

The Reverend Canon Julian Francis has been Vicar of St George's since March 2011. He will be taking up the post of Archdeacon of Walsall in Lichfield Diocese. All are warmly invited to the licensing administration in Lichfield Cathedral at 5.30pm on Friday 8th November 2019. Julian's last Sunday at St. George's will be 20th October 2019. Our prayers, thanks, congratulations and best wishes go with Julian and Jane and their family.

AUGUST SERMON SERIES

For the month of August we will be having a sermon series at the four 10.30am services entitled 'The Birth Narratives in Luke's Gospel'. In order to prepare for this do read Luke chapters 1 and 2 and we hope to enjoy it. The gospel readings for each Sunday will be from Luke chapters 1 and 2 and supporting readings will be chosen by the preacher.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

RAGE, BUT HOPE AT THE EDINBURGH FESTIVAL

If you are visiting the Edinburgh Festival this year look out for stage, film and TV actor and former St George's chorister Flora Spencer-Longhurst who is performing in the première of "Rage, But Hope" at Summerhall. The play by Stephanie Martin is eight interconnected, vibrant and diverse stories inspired by the Extinction Rebellion uprising, presenting the facts of the climate catastrophe whilst simultaneously revealing the uplifting and regenerative human experience of the movement.
